ROTARIANS HEAR WHAT CAN BE DONE THROUGH FLOODWATER CONTROL

What Arizona can do in ten years through united effort to control the flood waters of the Gila and Colorado rivers was told at short length by George H. Maxwell to the members of the Rotary club at their luncheon yesterday. As usual, Mr. Maxwell's address was intensely interesting and filled with cold facts. He held the closest of attention and at the close of his talk the Rotarians in a resolution stated they would render every effort to bring about the good things the speaker declared would ensue when this great work was completed which, he said, would bring under cultivation ten times the amount of land now watered by the Roosevelt reservoir.

H. A. Diehl gave a short description of the recent convention of the Arizona Merchants association at Tucson.

R. H. Bloom, the new director of music at the Christian church, sang three songs, accompanied by Mrs. Bloom on the piano. He received an ovation from the Rotarians.

Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. De Mund called the attention of the members of the organization in this city of a day nursery and asked for their support.

W. W. Lawton was chairman of the meeting.

FIVE WOULD BECOME AMERICAN CITIZENS

Willard Stanley Salter, clerk of the Commercial hotel, yesterday filed his declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States in the office of the clerk of the United States District court.

Salter came to this country from Nova Scotia three years ago, according to the record.

Patrick Joseph Lynam, a native of Ireland, also filed his first papers yesterday. Lynam who is a tailor of this city, has been in America since October 5, 1906.

George Contoyanis applied for citizenship papers. Contoyanis, who is a native of Greece, has been a resident of this country since 1904. He is engaged in the restaurant business in Chandler.

John Dimetris Christie, also a native of Greece, filed his declaration of intention giving Phoenix and his residence place and his business that of restaurant keeper. He came here in 1913.

HIGH SCHOOL LEASES NEW ATHLETIC TRACT

Lease of a field between Eighth and Ninth streets on Park street was given yesterday whereby the Phoenix high school will come into possession for a time of one of the finest athletic tracts in the southwest. While the land was not considered from the view point of purchase it is particularly desirable for its proximity to the high school and the need for it is not denied by the heads of the departments interested in sports.

The smaller field on the high school ground will now be used exclusively by the girl pupils for basketball, baseball and drills, while the new field will be given over to the boys who will be coached in their work by William J. Ogg, who has been their manager for some time. The military drills, as well as football, baseball and all athletic sports will be held in the new field which is owned by Mrs. J. A. La Tourette.

STATE AND COUNTY ATTORNEY TO PUSH HARRY HURLEY CASE

The attorney general of the state and County Attorney L. M. Lancy will conduct the prosecution of Harry Hurley, accused of grand larceny, according to word given out yesterday at Wiley E. Jones' office.

Since the complaint was first filed it had been rumored that Spencer B. Pugh would aid in the conduct of the case. Mr. Pugh had made the statement that he had been retained by the attorney general to aid him, this move being made necessary by a shortage of help in his office and an excess of work. Jones later stated he had not retained Pugh, but that the latter was merely gathering evidence for him.

The five affidavits which the attorney general is holding up his sleeve as trump cards in the prosecution still remain a secret. They were taken by Spencer B. Pugh, when several teamsters who had been discharged by Hurley came to the attorney and asked him to sue Hurley for damages. The attorney general had no knowledge of the alleged illegal transaction until Pugh presented his affidavits to him. Since that time their contents have remained locked in the recesses of Jones' private desk.

NEW PHOENIX BANK TO BE OPENED DEC. 1

Actual organization of the new Commercial National Bank has begun in Phoenix with the recent arrival of N. A. Lytle from southwestern Kansas, where for more than 20 years he has been engaged in the banking business.

The McKee building at the corner of First avenue and Adams street has been announced as the location of the new bank, and it is hoped that an opening may be effected by December 1.

Mr. Lytle's coming to Phoenix was brought about indirectly by the war. Having been accepted for U. S. C. A. work in France, he disposed of his banking interests in the vicinity of Wichita, and had actually been ordered to New York when the armistice was signed.

Many prominent Phoenix business men are allied with the new undertaking, which is but another symbol of the growth of the city and the increased prosperity of the valley. The new financial institution will be capitalized at $150,000 with a surplus of $15,000.

The list of the first board of directors has been announced, and consists of the following well-known men of the city: I. Rosenzweig, jeweler; J. L. Gust, attorney for the "Washers' association; Thomas J. Prescott, attorney associated with Mr. Gust until recently; W. D. Dixon, rancher; and N. A. Lytle.

STORY TELLER WILL ENTERTAIN CHILDREN

The initial meeting of the Parent-Teacher circle of the Adams district will be held at the Adams school next Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Yua Sonstegard King, a trained story teller and a new comer to Phoenix will be present to entertain the children and their parents in two groups on the lawn.

All parents and others interested in child welfare are urged to attend. The story telling will begin at the close of the first session at 2:15 o'clock.

WILL SING AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM
TONIGHT

Rarely do you have the opportunity of hearing such an exquisite voice as that possessed by Mrs. Alcock. Every music lover should attend this Recital. It is the musical event of the season. Go by all means. Once you have heard Mrs. Alcock you will be an admirer forever. Memory will make you wish to hear more of her glorious voice. Here is where we can turn that wish into a reality Thomas A. Edison and his musical instrument

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

are the means whereby this seeming feat of magic is accomplished and you surely will think it is magic after you have heard an Edison Re-Creation of Mrs. Alcock's voice as played on the New Edison. Her living voice and the Re-Creation of her living voice are identical. The most celebrated music critics in America have heard both and have testified that one cannot be distinguished from the other. We have prepared an exceedingly interesting brochure on the subject entitled "What the Critics Say." May we mail you a copy? Better yet, drop into our shop and let us present you with one. We shall also be glad to play for you some of the songs Mrs. Alcock will sing at this Recital.
